NOTICE OF ACCREDITATION OF EDUCATIONAL PROGRAM UNDER C.R.C.P. 260

PROGRAM NAME	GENERAL	ETHICS
FALL CONFERENCE 2018	16	1.8

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1. Colorado judges and attorneys who complete this program in its entirety, i.e., who listen to all substantive educational sessions, may claim the educational credits listed above. Individuals who do not listen to all sessions may claim credit only in proportion to sessions listened to.

2. Any Ethics Credits awarded in this program are NOT IN ADDITION TO the General Credits which have been awarded. Rather, they mean that the program, in whole or in part, may be counted, to the extent indicated, toward fulfilling both the General and Ethics requirement of C.R.C.P. 260. In order to claim Ethics Credits individuals must listen to thos segments of the program identified above.

3. This program is only accredited for 2 calendar years, if the program subject matter is not outdated, you will need to apply again. This accreditation is awarded provided the program sponsor permits the Board's staff to view, listen to or complete the program.
